

Who might join ADMG as an Associate Member?

Anyone who has an interest in stalking and deer management in Scotland - for instance, sporting tenants, clients and guests, and associated businesses such as gunsmiths, equipment suppliers, game dealers and members of related organisations.

Benefits of Associate Membership include:

- the opportunity to take an active part in representation of your sport and interest
- regular information through the Association's newsletter
- access to meetings, invitation to conferences, and other events
- hospitality at game fairs where ADMG has a presence

The cost to support ADMG through Associate Membership is just £25.00 annual subscription.

I wish to join the Association of Deer Management Groups, the recognised body representing the interests of deer management in Scotland, as an Associate Member.

Name _____

Address _____

Town _____ Post Code _____ Country _____

Signature _____

I enclose a cheque for £25.00

Please issue me with an invoice Please issue a receipt

Cheques made payable please to The Association of Deer Management Groups

Post your application and cheque/remittance instruction to:
Association of Deer Management Groups
Dalhousie Estate Office, Brechin, Angus, DD9 6SG Scotland

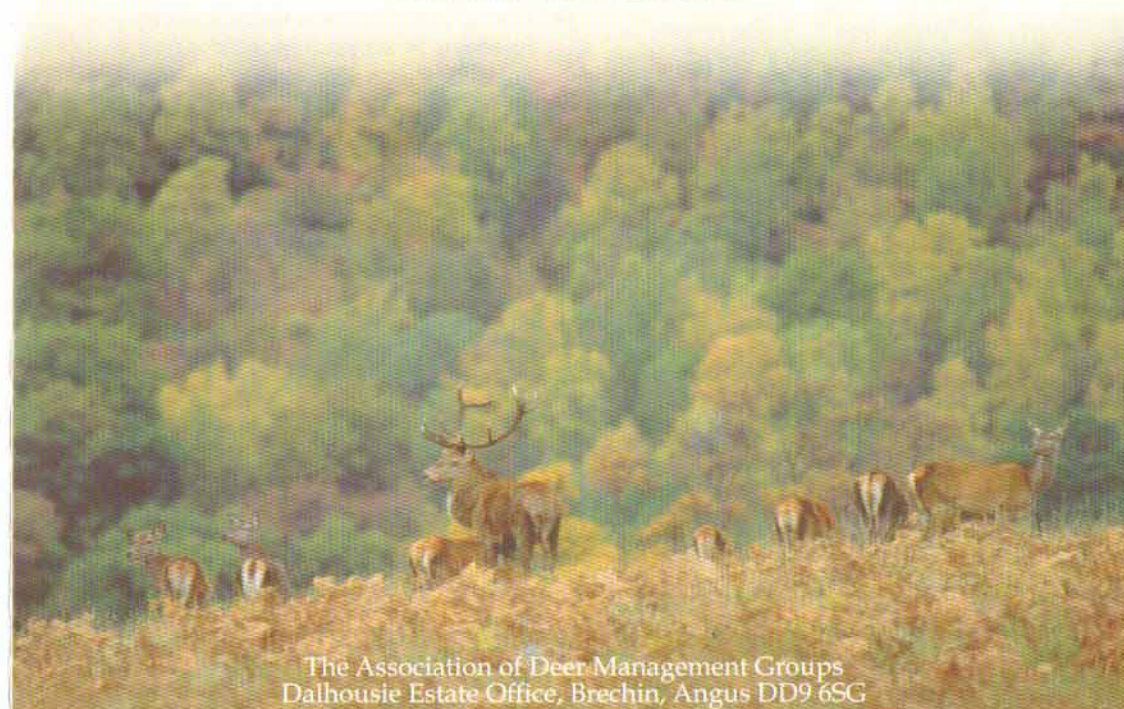

ADMG reserves the right to decline the application of any individual, business or organisation for Associate Membership without reason.

Deer Stalking in Scotland invites your Support

Working for you to maintain and further the sport of stalking deer in Scotland

Join the Association of Deer Management Groups
as an Associate Member

The Association of Deer Management Groups
Dalhousie Estate Office, Brechin, Angus DD9 6SG

T: 01356 624566 E: dalhousieestates@btinternet.com W: www.deer-management.co.uk

Cover photo: Neil McIntyre

